

Skirmish Paintball Team Building

Tactical Paintball... are you present

We can often find ourselves lacking presence, drifting into la-la moments when what we really need is to be alive, ready for action.

Well here at Skirmish Paintball Scotland you have no choice but to be present. Picture this, you're standing with some people, possibly friends or colleagues, on a wind swept day in the cover of some foliage, sound relaxing? It's not... your heart's pumping, your holding a paintball gun to your chest and listening to your final paintball tips & tactics from a trained paintballing marshal.

The time comes, teams are chosen, and those people you were standing with have transformed into fully present team mates. What do you do? Drift into a la-la moment and hope the game wins itself or do you find yourself, alive, and winning with presence!

The choice is an illusion, for at Skirmish Paintball Scotland the only real choice is in which one of the varied and exciting Paintball experiences you wish to face your fears and become ALIVE! Those who don't...are paintball history!

Team Building... it's a Paintball thing

For a long time in sports it has been seen, that sometimes teams work, and sometimes they don't. The difference is the make-up of that team and their ability to bond.

SKIRMISH Scotland

If you have a team that have bonded well, then it's not so much a team as an intuitive machine! The secret to success is not always to have the best of the best either, for this can lead to conflicts and power struggles. For a team to do what needs to be done it requires

- Leadership
- Planning
- Problem Solving
- Diversity
- Resolution
- Drive
- Inspiration

How do you find these qualities in your team players? The same way you get a team to bond; on the field in one of the Skirmish Paintball packages, not only incorporating Skirmish's vast selection of team building exercises but also tactical paintball.

Team building exercises are something that every corporate group do to try and hone their company into the very best, but many teams break under the pressure of action.

At Skirmish Paintball Scotland we offer you the opportunity to develop that team in our varied team building exercises AND test that team in the action of a tactical Paintball scenario. Build success; build a team with presence.
